Dance Scheduled Saturday In Union

A CABARET dance, sponsored by the newly-formed University Union Board, will be given between 9 p.m. and midnight Saturday.

Dale Hamilton, University of Illinois entertainer, will play.

Admission is $1 per person. Advance tickets may be obtained at the Union.

EIU Insurance Provisions Re-Published

EASTERN STUDENTS should familiarize themselves with the provisions of their student insurance plan, according to Dr. William D. Minor, director of housing and insurance administrator.

Minor said that some confusion seems to exist among students concerning the coverage offered by the plan. He suggested that students not having a brochure describing the plan pick one up at the Office of the Director of Housing.

As a service to students who were not on campus this summer when the plan was announced, the News is reprinting in full the details of the plan.

Coverage

The plan protects all participating students 24 hours a day, effective the day the student completes registration or the opening date of official registration, whichever is later.

Marathon Run Called 'Success'

THE UNIVERSITIES Bond Issue Marathon project culminated with a rally in downtown Chicago Saturday. Chicago Mayor Richard Daly was the featured speaker at the rally.

The Marathon run, featuring participants from all six state-supported schools, was designed to publicize the Universities Bond Issue, which was voted on yesterday.

Each of the relay teams from the six universities carried the symbolic torch of knowledge over separate routes, covering as much territory as possible.

Eastern's relay squad left the campus Thursday, arrived at the University of Illinois Friday, and completed the journey at 11 a.m. Saturday in Chicago.

Representatives of the six schools were met in Chicago by Mayor Daly; representatives of Democratic candidate for governor, Otto Kerner, and Governor Stratton; and a host of newsmen, television men, and radio men.

Park Livingston, chairman of the state Citizens Bond Committee, spoke to the group, as did Les Lear, public relations man for the state committee.

Students from the six universities gave short talks. Chuck Rickert, president of the Student Senate, represented Eastern.

In evaluating the effectiveness of the project, Lear said, "The

Kennedy Stresses Need For Moral Responsibility

Cites Evidence Of Moral Decay Within Management, Labor, Law

Board OK's Bid To Air-Condition University Union

THE TEACHERS College Board has approved the $55,120 bid of a Springfield firm for air-conditioning the Ballroom of the University Union.

A gift of $30,000 from Lewis S. Linder, a retired clothing merchant in Charleston, is to be applied to the project, at the request of the donor.

The Board, at the October 31 meeting, also approved the construction of a library building at Western Illinois University, Macomb.

Western is the last of the state's six public universities without a library building.

Western has been using quarters on the first and second floors of its main building.

Moving to a new building will give space for more classrooms.

Western's enrollment has decreased 82 students in the last year. Dr. Arthur L. Knoblauch, president of Western, said that the dip is due in part to the adjustment following dismissal of 250 students with substandard grades two years ago following release of Western's former president.

R. A. Stipes, Champaign, Board chairman, said that enrollment increase estimates indicate Western will have 7,000 to 9,000 students by 1970. The present figure is 2,778.

Cabaret Dance Slated For New Faculty

A CABARET dance honoring first-year faculty will be given by the Faculty Social Committee between 9 p.m. and midnight Friday in the University Union Ballroom.

Admission is $1 per person. Advance tickets are available at the Union.

Johnny Bruce and vocalist Jean Karr will provide the music. Each faculty member is requested by the committee to invite a non-faculty member as his guest.

"MY THREE-YEAR investigation of labor racketeers showed me something I was unaware of before," said Robert Kennedy in an appearance at Eastern last Thursday.

"It showed me that the moral decay which was evident in the operations of some unions crossed every segment of our society.

"We had fifty manufacturers on the stand during the investigations. We found these men involved in as many irregularities as some of the union officials.

"We found that several lawyers, respected in their communities, had used their training and abilities to engineer these illegal acts.

"The AF of L-CIO took action against some of the crooked union leaders. The manufacturers associations took no action whatsoever against the crooked manufacturers. Likewise, the bar associations, with the exception of one state, took no action against the crooked lawyers.

"This lack of moral responsibility must be changed—the trend must be reversed if this country is to lead the world and if democracy is to last."

Kennedy, speaking before an overflow crowd in the Ballroom of the University Union, appeared on behalf of his brother, Senator John Kennedy.

Union To Feature Soap Box Oratory

A SOAP-BOX oratorical session will be held from 10 a.m. to 11 a.m. tomorrow at the University Union, under the auspices of the Lyceum Committee of the Student Union Board.

Anyone may speak on whatever subject they choose. Several students have already indicated they will speak.

Richard Dunn, public relations officer of the Committee, urged students to participate, saying "This is the time for you to say what you feel should be said. If you would like to speak tomorrow, just be there!"

I AM going way out on a limb and predict Kennedy will win 516 electoral votes, winning election by a landslide. Nixon will take Arizona, Montana, New Hampshire, and possibly Mississippi for 19 electoral votes. Mississippi, however, might go for a third party.

Eastern's Band Celebrates 33rd Anniversary This School Year

by Emma Lou Edwards

THIRTY-THREE years ago last month Eastern's band made its first appearance on campus. The official debut was Oct. 22, 1927, at chapel. Following chapel, the band played at a football game with Evansville College. Credit for starting the band goes to Dr. Harlan L. Railsback, college physics teacher.

The funds necessary for the band were donated by various college and high school classes. In March of 1928, it became possible for the band to furnish instruments, which further encouraged membership.

Before this, only those owning instruments could join.

Uniforms came next. The first uniforms consisted of white sailor hats, blue coats, and white trousers or skirts.

It was in 1929 that the familiar blue and gray uniforms were secured.

Harlan L. Hassberg took over the direction of the band in 1928. Directors after Hassberg were Richard W. Weckel, Eugene K. Asbury, Dr. Rudolph D. Anfinson, Elbert I. Masten, and Thomas S. Richardson. Dr. George Westcott is present director of the band.

In 1936, the band assumed two forms, the marching band and the concert band.

The bands play at various athletic contests, give annual concerts, and take tours during the year.

Drum major for this year's band is David C. Kublank, Mundelein. Majoriettes are Beverly Tilley, Marietta Lorenz, Gwen Steffy, and Linda Spraggins.

U Of I Staff To Exhibit

AN EXHIBITION of creative work by the art staff of the University of Illinois will be held in the Paul Sargent Gallery, 12:30 p.m. Sunday, November 13, and will extend through December 18.

There are 29 exhibiting artists. Twenty-two of them will be represented by prints, drawings, water colors, and paintings.

Four sculptors will display their welded steel forms, and the comic division is represented by ceramics of two artists.

Examples of the work in industrial and advertising design will also be shown by members of the art faculty working in that area.

Many of these artists have exhibited in several important shows and have been represented in private and museum collections, enjoying a national reputation for their work.

The exhibition promises to be very interesting, with a variety of approaches and techniques in the spirit of our times.

Campaign Buttons Provide Different Political Hobby

by Dwight Connelly

"DON'T THROW away those campaign buttons." This advice comes from Dr. Donald R. Tingley of the social science department.

"Collecting campaign buttons can be a very interesting hobby," says Tingley, "especially for those interested in politics."

The owner of a rather large collection of campaign momentos himself, Tingley contends that much American history can be learned from such a hobby.

"Some of the buttons used are difficult to spot if you're not familiar with the campaign issues of the past," Tingley says.

"For instance, there are some interesting buttons from the period when various factions were debating the gold question. I have several buttons with the 'gold bug' imprinted upon them," said Tingley.

"These would escape the collector not familiar with this phase of this country's history."

The hobby is popular with many persons in the social science field. Robert Sterling, instructor of social science, like Tingley, is among those having large collections.

Tingley's oldest campaign button is from the 1848 campaign—one proclaiming the virtues of Zachary Taylor. Other notable buttons include two of William Jennings Bryan, one from Hoover's campaign ("A Full Dinner Pail") and some from Teddy Roosevelt's tumultuous Presidential tryst.

FDR is represented, as is Taft, Coolidge, and numerous other hopefuls. Adlai Stevenson, probably Tingley's favorite living politician, is represented by a "flicker" button, as well as several smaller metallic buttons.

First started in 1956, the collection is worth "about $500 or $600," as nearly as Tingley can estimate.

"Some of my most prized buttons were given me by Dr. Coleman," Tingley explains. Dr. Charles Coleman is professor of social science at Eastern.

Tingley says he collects the buttons "in antique shops, at sales, and anywhere else I can find them." He has accumulated a large assortment of buttons from the current campaign.

Among the current buttons are a large Nixon-Lodge button, a P-T boat tie clasp, "flicker" buttons from both parties, and several other varied creations.

"You would be surprised how scarce some of these current buttons will be in a short time," says Tingley.

"Buttons become more valuable quickly, since most people dispose of them one way or another in a few weeks.

"While I have quite a bit of money tied up in my collection, the hobby need not be expensive," Tingley says.

"Someone could start cheaply with this year's, pick up old ones from relatives who have saved them, or find them somewhere else for little cost."

Anyone for a new hobby?

Collector And Collection

DR. DONALD Tingley, associate professor of social science, looks over a portion of his campaign button collection. Tingley has been collecting campaign momentos since 1956.

CARE To Name Two Ambassadors

TWO AMERICAN college students, their identity as yet unknown, will visit Italy, Greece, France, and Turkey next spring as people-to-people ambassadors for CARE.

They will be selected through the Vicks CARE Crusade, a contest conducted nationally by the Vicks Chemical Company and supported on 319 campuses by Alpha Phi Omega.

Dave Kublank, APO Crusade chairman for Eastern, explained recently that contest sponsors also aim to raise $1,000,000 in donations—accompanying entry blanks—to further CARE's relief work abroad.

The two student winner-ambassadors will be joined in New York on March 5 by 102 adults.

On March 6, they will depart for Rome. From Rome, they will fly to Athens, Istanbul, and finally Paris for the return to New York on March 17.

To enter the contest, one must complete in 25 words or less: "Americans should CARE about their neighbors abroad because . . ."

A minimum contribution of $4 should be included and no Vicks product need be purchased.

Entry blanks are available at Old Main, in the University Union, and in the residence hall. Entries must be postmarked on or before midnight, November 26.

Student Insurance Provisions Told . . .

Expense enumerated in item one above in excess of the said $500. 3. 80 percent of the reasonable expense of a legally qualified surgeon for the performance of a surgical operation, either in or out of a hospital.

4. 80 percent of any reasonable expense for treatment by a physician either in or out of a hospital, except that as to expense incurred other than during a period of hospital confinement, the first $25 of such expense shall not be covered, and that there shall be no coverage under this paragraph four when benefits are payable under the preceding paragraph three.

5. Up to $25 of expense for consultation when the attending physician requires the counsel or assistance of a legally qualified physician in arriving at a diagnosis during a period of hospital confinement of an insured student.

6. The expense of a community, hospital, or private ambulance when required to transport an insured student to or from a hospital, not to exceed $25 in connection with any one hospital admission.

The total amount payable under paragraphs one through six combined shall not exceed the aggregate amount of $5,000 for any one injury or sickness.

Benefits under this plan are paid in addition to any benefits under which a student may be entitled under any personal policy or membership in any hospital association.

Family Program

Eligible students may purchase coverage for their dependents with the same benefits as provided under the major medical fee. Applications are available in the Office of the Director of Housing.

The plan protects the dependents of participating students 24 hours a day and becomes effective when the application and the required premium is received by the University. This procedure must be completed within 14 days after the student becomes eligible.

Optional Maternity Benefits

Benefits resulting from pregnancy shall apply to a married female student or to the wife of an insured student, but only if both husband and wife (if the wife is not an insured student) are covered by this policy at the time of conception and the wife is covered as a dependent of the insured student.

Such benefits shall be payable only after the insured student and covered dependent have been covered under this policy for more than nine months, except for premature birth, miscarriage, ectopic pregnancy, or abortion, provided that a full-time pregnancy would have resulted in childbirth more than nine months after the insured student and covered dependent became covered under this policy.

When by reason of pregnancy, childbirth, or miscarriage any such person shall be confined within a hospital, or shall be personally treated by a legally qualified physician or surgeon, the company will pay the expense actually incurred therefor by the insured student or insured dependent, up to $50 for miscarriage; to $100 for normal delivery of child or children; or up to $150 for Caesarian section.

If insurance as to such insured student or insured dependent terminates by reason of the company's refusal to renew this policy, or the student's ineligibility to renew, the benefits otherwise payable for loss resulting from pregnancy, childbirth, or miscarriage will be paid if the pregnancy existed on the date of such termination of coverage and the pregnancy occurred not less than nine months after the effective date of this policy as to the insured student or insured dependent whose pregnancy is the basis of claim.

Exclusions

This policy does not cover:

1. Services rendered by the Health Service of the University for which a fee or charge is not normally made for such service by the Health Service or its staff. (Dependents are not eligible for nor may they use the University Health Service.)

2. Declared or undeclared war or any act thereof;

3. The cost of eyeglasses or prescriptions thereof;

4. Dental treatment or dental surgery, except that made necessary by injury to natural teeth;

5. First aid treatment for athletic injuries sustained while participating in intercollegiate athletic activities;

6. The cost of preventative medicines and vaccines;

7. Pregnancy, childbirth, or miscarriage, except as provided under the Family Plan.

Claim Procedures

In the event of illness or injury, the student must:

1. Report at once to the University Health Service if at the University, so that proper medical treatment can be prescribed or approved.

2. If away from the University, consult a doctor and follow his instructions. Notify the University Health Service as soon as possible.

Claim forms and instructions on claim procedures are available at the Office of the Director of Housing. While absent from school during the summer vacation period, claim forms may be obtained from the Office of the Director of Housing.

Student Eligibility And Cost

All persons who register for attendance as students and are assessed the full registration fee by the University are eligible for coverage hereunder (excepting students enrolled in post sessions, extramural, evening, and Saturday classes only).

Cost per quarter (including summer quarter), $5.00; cost for 13 weeks summer coverage if not in summer school, $5.00.

At registration, all eligible persons are required to pay the major medical fee for the period for which they register.

Students who can produce evidence of equal or better coverage may make application for a refund of this fee by contacting the director of housing.

Dependent Eligibility And Cost

Eligible students are spouse (residing with insured student) and unmarried children over 14 days old (including step-children, if dependent), who are not self-supporting and who reside with the insured student, and for whom written application is made and premium paid within 14 days after the insured student becomes eligible.

Cost for spouse only: Cost per quarter (including summer quarter), $5.20; cost per 13 weeks summer coverage if not in summer school, $5.60.

Cost for spouse and dependent children: Cost per quarter (including summer quarter), $9.10; cost per 13 weeks summer coverage if not in summer school, $9.80.

Maternity Eligibility And Cost

If maternity coverage is desired, it must be purchased in conjunction with the basic plan and the premium (including the premium for the student for the balance of the year) must be paid annually.

The maternity premium is $55.00 per year, which is included in the following charge; Student and spouse, $95.80; student, spouse, and dependent children, $111.40.

The amount of the major medi-

Growing Pains Felt By Old Main As 'New Look' Comes Gradually

by Phyllis Hedge

GROWING PAINS through the years have given Old Main a new look.

Many former students remember Old Main as a building which housed everything from the training school to the entire library.

New students will remember Old Main as the administration building, housing the English, mathematics, business, and foreign language departments, as well as administrative offices.

Many years ago Old Main housed the library and training school. A section of the third floor, where the business department is now located, once housed the gym for physical education classes.

On the second floor, laboratory classes in chemistry and physics met.

In 1954, all classrooms were abolished on the main floor. Math classes were moved to the second floor.

The offices of dean of men and women were moved to new quarters in the west end of the first floor.

The textbook library was moved from Old Main to the Concrete Block Building in 1958. The same year, music, speech, and radio were moved from Old Main to the new cal fee paid by the student during the last registration may be deducted from these amounts.

Fine Arts Center.

Foreign language offices were moved from the first floor of Old Main to the third floor and the tower, which music, speech, and radio had occupied.

Old Main is now undergoing more changes. Fire doors are being installed and the Records Office is being remodeled.

Outside appearances are being changed as work on Highway 17 progresses. Walks are being built from Old Main to the highway.

Old Main will be remembered as the "castle in the corn belt." This particular architecture was chosen in lieu of a modern structure in honor of governor John P. Altgeld, who was in office at the time of construction.

Dr. Charles H. Coleman's book, History of Eastern Illinois State College, says Altgeld was German-born and had seen many castles on the Rhine in Germany.

SIU Cops X-Country Title; Eastern's Honn Runs Ninth

By Ron Fritchley

SOUTHERN'S JOE Thomas won Saturday's State cross country title in record-breaking fashion and led his teammates to the team title over seven schools at Eastern's Lincoln Field golf course.

Thomas covered the three and one-half mile course in 16:53.9 to surpass teammate John Flamer's record time of 18:38. Flamer also surpassed his mark of last year, but could muster no better than fifth place Saturday.

Southern captured first, fifth, sixth, 10th, and 12th places for a low score of 34 points and the title. Northern Illinois was a distant second with 72 counters, followed by Western with 99 and the host Panthers with 101 tallies.

Thomas was pushed hard by another freshman, Tom O'Hara of Loyola, who was less than three yards behind at the finish. Both Thomas and O'Hara battled down the straight-away with Thomas' kick proving the difference at the wire.

Northern's Dave Stern, who had lost only once this season and was picked by many to win Saturday, was in close contention at the three-mile mark, but fell back in the final one-half mile.

Eastern's top choice for high honors, Marvin Honn, finished a strong ninth in the field of 56 runners to represent Eastern's first finisher.

Other Panther placers were Don McMorris (19), Ron Dawkins (20), Jim Quinlan (21), Bill Meckfessel (32), Dick McClain (33), and Ron Gorden (36).

The top ten finishes were:

1. Joe Thomas, SIU
2. Tom O'Hara, Loyola
3. Dave Stern, Northern
4. Fred Kozar, Western
5. John Flamer, Southern
6. Alan Gelso, Southern
7. Jim Mooney, Loyola
8. Gary Bredeson, Northern
9. Marvin Honn, Eastern
10. Don Hequembourg, Southern

Central Michigan Routs Eastern, 35-12

EASTERN'S football team watched its chances for a fourth place finish in the IIAC go down the drain Saturday with a 35-12 loss to Central Michigan on Lincoln Field.

The Panthers are now 1-4 in conference play and Central 3-2 with only one game remaining.

Eastern led 12-7 middle-way in the second quarter and trailed only 21-12 with 49 seconds left in the game. But, Central picked off two desperation passes in the closing seconds and turned them both into touchdowns for the wide victory edge.

Homer Butler scored both Panther touchdowns on runs of one and four yards in the first and second quarters, respectively. The Lovington freshman attempted to pass for both PAT's.

Butler was Eastern's leading ground-gainer with 138 yards in 36 carries. The three dozen carries set a new conference record.

Central quarterback Walt Sadosky and halfback Bob Fisher accounted for all the five Chip touchdowns.

Pat Darling, freshman quarterback, suffered a broken leg in the first half of play and was rushed to the Charleston hospital.

Fall Intramural Sports Reach Playoff Stage

By Pete Love

BLASTERS AND Whiz kids each moved forward to represent the independent leagues in this week's final touch football playoffs while the fraternity league was headed by TKE and Phi Sigs.

The final playoffs to decide the 1960 touch football champion was slated for this week. TKE was pitted against Whiz Kids and Blasters against Phi Sig Monday with the winners and losers playing for first and third Tuesday.

A playoff between Sig Tau, Phi Sig, and Sig Pi was required last week to determine second place in fraternity play and a playoff berth. Sig Tau eliminated Sig Pi with a 21-18 win, but lost to Phi Sig 18-13 for the playoff spot.

The two independent entries in this week's final playoffs were decided by a playoff between the top two teams from each division.

Semi-finals of the intramural wrestling meet will be held Tuesday in Lantz Gym at 7:30 p.m.

sion of the two independent leagues. Whiz Kids, Blasters, Campus Capers, and Knighthawks made up this list.

Intramural director John Hodapp also announced the soccer playoffs will be held tomorrow and Tuesday of next week.

Last week's football action:

Fraternity

Sig Tau 21 Sig Pi 18—Max Eldred scored two touchdowns and an extra point to lead the Sig Tau scoring. However, Bob DeBolt ran 45 yards for the winning six-point.

Bob White scored all three Sig Pi touchdowns on runs of 45, 40, and 35 yards.

Phi Sig 18 Sig Tau 13—With a playoff spot at stake, Phi Sig overcame a 13-12 halftime deficit to win. Jerry Slowinski scored twice and Larry Mathews once to furnish the winning scores.

The winners saved the game with a great goal line stand late in the contest to preserve the win. Bob DeBolt and Dick Young scored the touchdowns for the losers.

Other scores:

Sig Pi 49, Chi Nu 20

TKE 20, Sig Tau 13

Indiana State Clobbers Pinther's Jayvees, 46-8

EASTERN'S RESERVE football team closed out its four game schedule Wednesday with a 46-8 beating by Indiana State on Lincoln Field.

The lone Panther score came on a pass from quarterback Dick Parker to John Daugherty, who skirted 55 yards with the pigskin to paydirt.

Coach Hop Pinther's team suffered losses to Illinois Normal, and Southern twice during the year.

EIU Battles Normal For Fifth Position In IIAC Standings

EASTERN HOSTS Illinois State Normal on Lincoln Field Saturday in the battle for fifth spot in the Interstate Intercollegiate Athletic Conference. Game time is set for 1:30 p.m. CST.

Normal is currently tied for the cellar spot with Eastern Michigan in the conference race with a 4-4-1 record. Eastern is resting in the fifth spot with a 1-4-0 record.

Normal has tied Eastern Michigan 14-14 and lost to Western (42-7), Central Michigan (50-4), Southern (30-6), and Northern (20-0).

A Normal win Saturday would leave the Redbirds in fifth place and Eastern in sixth. The Panthers tied with Normal last year.

EIU Harriers To Run In IIAC Meet Sat.

COACH PAT O'Brien's cross country team will compete in the IIAC meet Saturday at the El Paso Country Club near Normal, Ill.

Eastern's seven starters will probably be Marvin Honn, Don McMorris, Ron Dawkins, Ron Gorden, Jim Quinlan, Bill Meckfessel, and Dick McClain.

Southern will rate as heavy favorites to capture its second straight conference title. The Salukis easily won Saturday's State Meet title and are deep in talent.

Eastern placed third in last year's conference running with Rawlan Lillard topping the individual entries with a record-breaking performance.

Southern's Joe Thomas will be a strong choice to capture first in record-breaking time.

Notice

WAA IS sponsoring a co-recreational evening in Lantz Gym tonight from 7:30 to 9:00.

All Eastern students are invited to attend. Volleyball, badminton, and ping-pong will highlight the evening's entertainment.

Panther Prowlings

By Jim Kimball, Sports Editor

A COLUMN such as this one can be used for expressing many different thoughts. For example, I would like to review and add to a couple of stories that failed to gain the Phi Sig soccer team and Eastern cross country team proper recognition in recent editions.

I take full credit for the handling of both stories. Not meaning to sound like a politician, but it's part of this sportswriter's platform to treat each sport fairly and to the best of my writing ability.

Thus, following criticism forwarded in good humor by a certain Courier sports-writer, Eastern baseball coach, and a couple Panther harriers, I relate the following:

Eastern's cross country team WAS entered in Saturday's State cross country meet despite some doubt expressed after reading the preview story on the State Meet in last week's News.

Coach O'Brien's runners placed fourth in the meet, missing third place by two points. Not bad for a team that lists no seniors and only one junior.

Two weeks ago, Phi Sigs won a hard-fought 1-0 intramural soccer match over Sig Tau. It was won in an exhausting and exciting series of sudden death overtimes that lasted nearly 30 minutes.

Not only did the goal keep the Phi Sig record perfect and eject them into first place in the standings, but it also handed Sig Tau its first loss.

Larry Mathews kicked the all-important goal.

Tomorrow and Tuesday of next week mark the playoff dates for the intramural soccer title. Oh yes, Phi Sigma Epsilon will be entered and coach Pat O'Brien's cross country team will compete in Saturday's IIAC Meet at Normal.

Russ Herron, former sports-publicity director at Eastern before moving to a similar position at Central Michigan in 1959, was in attendance at Saturday's EIU-Central football game.

Russ made the trip on the team bus and also accompanying the Chips on the bus was the Central Michigan president.

Quarterback Homer Butler was a tired young man following Saturday's game. The slender Lovington freshman carried the ball 11 times to smash a IIAC record.

Southern's Clarence Walker carried 28 times against Northern last year to hold the previous record.

Including 14 pass attempts, Butler handled the ball 34 different times. He rushed for 138 yards and passed for 41.

Bill Hamilton appeared very much at home in Saturday's game following his switch to fullback from halfback. Hamilton rolled up 128 yards in 17 carries and completed with Butler to gain all but 11 of Eastern's 281 yard rushing total.

Five sophomores, three freshmen, and two juniors made up the top ten individual finishes at Saturday's State cross country meet. Freshmen Joe Thomas (Southern) and Tom O'Hara (Loyola) placed first and second.

Geography Head Tells Weather Story For Month Of October

by Dr. Dalias Price, as told to Ron Butler

WOULD all agree that the month has been a very unusual one. However, many of us would be under the impression it was an unusually warm month. Actually, temperatures for the past month were slightly below average, but less than one degree.

In keeping with the general trend of fall weather, extremes in temperature did occur. The high for the month was a summer-like 83, which occurred on October 11; and the low was 6 degrees below freezing, which occurred on the 20th of the month.

We had an accumulation of 10 degree days in October. Before the winter is over, we will have accumulated some 100 of them.

Altogether, there were three days on which frost or freezing temperatures occurred this month. The first killing frost was delayed some four days later than average.

Our growing season this year was longer at both ends of the season. We had 193 consecutive days without freezing temperatures, which is more than two weeks longer growing season than normal. This length of our growing season this past summer could be compared favorably with areas in southern Illinois.

October followed the pattern set by other months during the past summer by continuing to be dry. Total rain for the month was a disappointing 1.6 inches, just half our normal expectancy.

In spite of the low amount of rainfall received last month, there were nine days on which some rain fell, the most being .35 of an inch which was recorded on the 26th of the month.

Since October was the fourth straight month with deficient rainfall, the soil is still very dry. Good, soaking, long continued fall rains are needed.

Repayments may continue over a period of ten years.

Rent To Be Raised In Residence Halls

RESIDENCE HALL room and board rent will be increased from $216 to $228 per quarter, effective Aug. 25, 1961, Dean of Students Rudolph Anfinson has announced.

Room deposit for residence halls will be increased from $15 to $25, beginning the summer of 1961.

Therefore, Anfinson said, all new applicants for residence hall space beginning with summer school, 1961, will pay the $25 deposit.

Marathon Run . . .

run was probably the greatest single thing of the whole campaign for getting publicity for the bond issue.

"The runners got publicity in virtually every city they ran through."

Lear also commented on the effectiveness of the Illinois State Police in helping with the marathon run. "Their cooperation was most excellent," he said.

Mayor Daly said the people of Chicago supported the bond issue strongly in 1958 when it was defeated downstate. He predicted Chicago would overwhelmingly support it again this year.

Those making the run from Champaign to Chicago were Garey Hodge, Tom Campbell, Stan Papp, Leo Welch, George Daugherty, Earl Jeffers, Dave Block, Emery Kirby, Jr., John Montgomery, Bill Buckles, Bill Silknetter, Nick Williams, Phil Kendrick, and Irving Roussel.

'Company 60' Grad Makes Good On Television; Movie Tryout Next

by Ken Fish

JACK CHAPLIN, member of Eastern's summer theatre "Company '60," already an established television star at 18, is now being considered for greater things.

According to his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Chaplin, Charleston, Chaplin has been asked to read for a part in a forthcoming Columbia motion picture, and is being considered for a regular part on a weekly night-time television series.

Chaplin, a graduate of Charleston High School, has played the lead role in two ABC television productions since arriving in Hollywood in August.

Following his portrayal of a teen-age gang leader on the October 6 "A Day In Court" program, Chaplin played the title role in "The Case of Bucky Gilbert" on the ABC "Morning Court" series recently.

Chaplin was named one of the best high school actors in the state contest last year. His reading from "Death of A Salesman" won a district contest at Mattoon.

Last summer, Chaplin played the lead role in "Picnic" and had a part in "Mrs. McThing," both "Company '60" productions.

Dr. E. Glendon Gabbard, Eastern drama director, said "Chaplin, for an 18-year-old, has unusual understanding of character and has tremendous emotional projection."

Chaplin also received praise from James Van Delinder, Charleston High School drama director.

In his younger days, Chaplin was an outstanding athlete in the local Babe Ruth baseball league. He was coached by Jim Kimball, News sports editor.

Jack Chaplin

His older brother, Gene, is a senior social science major at Eastern.

Mail to Chaplin should be addressed to Jack Chaplin, ABC Television Studio, Hollywood, Calif.

A MODEST PROPOSAL

A movement is afoot—a shocking, startling movement—to solve the problem of overcrowded colleges by the simple expedient of refusing admission to women at coeducational schools!

It is argued by proponents of this plan that in today's world a college education is absolutely essential for a man, while for a woman it is merely a pleasant interlude between adolescence and housewifery. There is simply not room enough for both men and women in our overburdened colleges; therefore, in all fairness, women who have far less need of a degree than men, must yield their places.

Well sir, when I heard this drastic proposal, I was so shocked that I sat right down and lit a Marlboro. I always sit right down and light a Marlboro when I am shocked. I also always sit right down and light a Marlboro when I am not shocked. There is no time, no condition, no mood, no estate when it isn't a source of soul-deep gratification to settle back and have a full-flavored smoke—Marlboro, the filtered cigarette with the unfiltered taste—Marlboro, the jewel of cigarettes—Marlboro, the pinnacle of the tobaccoist's art—Marlboro, my comfort, haven, and snug harbor.

Well sir, I sat smoking my Marlboro and thinking over the shocking proposal to keep women out of coed schools, and hoping fervently that another solution can be found. If the calamitous day ever comes when women are banned from coed colleges, I will gnash my teeth and rend my garments and take to my bed without supper. Like any other Marlboro man, I love women. I love the sight and sound of them, the cut of their jibs, their beauty and grace, their cunning little spitecurls, their sleek dimples, their middy blouses, their aura and effluvium. Moreover, I freely admit that when it comes to brainpower, they can give the average man cards and spades and big casino too. It would be a shame, a disgrace and a catastrophe to keep these beautiful, intelligent creatures out of college.

However, it is always wise in time of fair weather to prepare for foul. What if the advocates of keeping women out of college begin to gather strength? We who abhor this fiendish plan must be ready with a substitute . . . and it just so happens I have one—and a mighty ingenious little plan it is, if I say so myself.

Granted that classroom seats are in short supply, and granted that men need degrees more than women, it is still not necessary to bar women from college. Let them go to college but—here is the beauty part of my plan—don't let them go to class!

I love the sight and sound of them...

This solution, it seems to me, answers every requirement. It releases hundreds of thousands of classroom seats to needy males. At the same time, it does not deprive women of the rich and varied benefits of campus life. They can join sororities, shoot pool at the Union, build bonfires for Homecoming games, pour at the Dean's tea, plait daisies in their hair, organize drag races, sculpt in ice, hook rugs, walk their cheetahs, play Monopoly, find love—in short, they can do anything except go to class.

Tell the truth, girls: Is that bad?

© 1960 Max Shulman

Classroom space is short, but smoking pleasure is in abundant supply. Try Marlboros—or Marlboro's unfiltered sister cigarette—mild, flavorful Philip Morris, now available in regular size or the sensational new king-size Commander. Have a Commander—welcome aboard!

Kennedy . . .

cerning the possibility of Senator Kennedy being controlled by the Catholic Church if elected President, Robert Kennedy's answer was to the point:
"When a man takes office as President, he takes an oath to God to uphold the Constitution. This oath is above and beyond the religious affiliation the man has with any church. I think most persons will realize this."
Kennedy discounted, Eisenhower's late full-hearted entry into the campaign on Nixon's behalf.
"Eisenhower is immensely popular," said Kennedy, "but I do not think his personal popularity can be transferred to Nixon to any great extent."
Discounting Nixon's slogan of "experience," Kennedy likened the vice-president's position to that of a person who had driven an automobile for eight years, had 12 wrecks, and applied for another license on the basis of knowing what mistakes not to make in the future.
The basic difference between the two candidates, Kennedy said, was that one was satisfied with things as they now are, and one is convinced America can do a great deal better.

This is the B-52. Advanced as it may be, this airplane has one thing in common with the first war-galleys of ancient Egypt...and with the air and space vehicles of the future. Someone must chart its course. Someone must navigate it.

For certain young men this presents a career of real executive opportunity. Here, perhaps you will have the chance to master a profession full of meaning, excitement and rewards...as a Navigator in the U. S. Air Force.

To qualify for Navigator training as an Aviation Cadet you must be an American citizen between 19 and 26½—single, healthy and intelligent. A high school diploma is required, but some college is highly desirable. Successful completion of the training program leads to a commission as a Second Lieutenant...and your Navigator wings.

If you think you have what it takes to measure up to the Aviation Cadet Program for Navigator training, see your local Air Force Recruiter. Or clip and mail this coupon.

New Bank To Fill Need: Robison

by Nancy Greeson

THE NEW Coles County National Bank will contribute to the expanding economy of Charleston, according to Ray Robison, executive vice-president.

He stated that Charleston was probably one of the few communities in the United States with a population of 10,483, a university, and a student population of 2,723, with but one bank.

"In addition to this," Robison pointed out, "there is in excess of $5,000,000 of bankable funds in surrounding communities that can be attracted to Charleston."

The new Coles County National Bank, Robison says, is in a position to attract a good portion of the funds not presently available in Charleston.

This alone, he says, will provide an additional supply of money that can be allocated to the development and expansion of local business.

This will also help to finance agriculture and individual needs, he says.

Robison explained that the main purpose of a bank is to accept deposits and make loans. In its role of accepting deposits, he says, it should offer a safe, convenient, and pleasant place to deposit funds which must be readily convertible into cash.

In its secondary role of making loans, it is the responsibility of the bank to properly allocate funds to businesses and individuals.

These should be allocated in such a way as to add economic wealth to the community and to provide a safe investment return for the bank, according to Robison.

son.

He says that the modern banking quarters and ultra-modern systems for handling the banking needs of the public at the new bank are but two reasons for the growth of the new bank.

In addition, he says the innovation of a new parking lot and drive-in teller facilities offer the ultimate in convenience for their customers.

Robison explained that checking accounts at the new bank are handled in such a way as to provide greater freedom of paying debts and maximum safety to the individual deposits.

Savings accounts and time certificates of deposits pay 2½% and 3% (respectively). With the addition of a Christmas club account, every thought has been given to the customers' convenience in handling his money, said

Over 1,000 At EIU Hold Scholarships

MORE THAN 38 per cent of the full-time students at Eastern are going to college on teacher education scholarships, according to Dr. Maurice Manbeck, assistant dean, registration and records.

There are a total of 1,047 students out of 2,723 at Eastern under this program. The range of students is from one to 81 from a county.

Coles County heads the list with 81 students in attendance under a Teacher Education Scholarship. Other counties which have a large number of students are: Vermilion 62; Edgar 56; Effingham 53; Macon 47; Douglas 46; Shelby 45; and Crawford 42.

Teacher Education Scholarships are available to top graduates each year in all Illinois high schools.

Robison.

All accounts are insured to $10,000 each by the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation.

Other services include bank money orders, savings bonds, banking by mail, and travelers checks.

Probably the greatest asset to any financial institution, Robison says, is the right combination of substantial, community-minded organizers.

"The new bank will qualify on both of these counts," the vice-president said.
